Dear families,

Visits to Bristol Beacon – 2025/26 Orchestral Season

The music department has arranged for students to attend four concerts at Bristol Beacon over the course of the academic year. The visits are suitable for students who have an interest in orchestral music. Information about each concert can be found on the Bristol Beacon website and a summary is also displayed on the extra-curricular noticeboard in the music department at St. Bede's. Details of the visits are below.

Dates: Thursday 16th October, Thursday 20th November, Friday 27th March and Wednesday 17th June. Please note that students do not need to be available for each of the four concerts. Students may choose which concert(s) they would like to attend.

Venue: Beacon Hall, Bristol Beacon, Trenchard Street, Bristol, BS1 5AR.

Arrival: Students should meet Mr Lewis and Mr Hibbs outside Bristol Beacon (Trenchard Street entrance) at 6:30pm.

Performance: Each concert starts at 7:00pm.

Collection: Students should be collected from Bristol Beacon at the end of each concert. Collection times will be confirmed closer to the time. With your permission, students may make their own way home from Bristol Beacon.

Tickets: At the moment, 8 free tickets are available for each concert. Bristol Beacon may provide more free tickets for secondary school students later in the academic year.
