What's On in the Library

Welcome to the return of the Library Lockdown Newsletter!

I hope you are all more enthusiastic about your daily exercise than a certain member of my family!

This Fortnight:

Burns Night
25th January

"All the secrets of the world are contained in books. Read at your own risk."—
Lemony Snicket

Some of you will have seen the Unicorn Theatre's magical retellings of Grimm's fairy tales in class. You can see all six of the stories, as well as some other children's theatre, here

ACTIVITY OF THE WEEK

Why not try a book related quiz with your family?

Anna James is a children's author who spent the last lockdown interviewing some of your favourite middle grade authors on her YouTube channel. She also has a book quiz (I got 19.5 out of 35 but in my defence I didn't have anyone to help me! If you try it, let me know how you got on)

Get free access to children's newspaper First News for the duration of lockdown

BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

Having started during the last lockdown, Piers Torday is powering through online readings of his 'Wild' series, releasing a chapter a day. Catch up on his YouTube channel here

Each week the National Literacy Trust's Virtual School Library has a new book to read or listen to, with chapters released each day for that day only. Find them here

Remember that you can digitally access loads of books, newspapers, magazines and comics from the public library during lockdown. If you are not already a member you can apply on line, but if you are under 16 you will need a parent or carer to do it for you

GO TO THE VIRTUAL LIBRARY FOR MORE DIGITAL BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS.
